

THE STAR FOR THE SUMMER.
The Daily Star will be mailed to persons who may be absent from the city during the summer at the rate of five cents per month.

Cloudy, or partly so, with indication of rain the next twenty-four hours.

TAYLOR, the boy who cut a companion in a barrel on Walnut street, as mentioned in the Star of yesterday, was up in the Police Court to-day, but had his case continued one week.

RICHARD JOHNSON, a colored waiter at an upper saloon on Fifth street, near Vine, last night cut another waiter of the same complexion with a knife in the breast. In the Police Court this morning the case was continued to next Wednesday, and the bond fixed at $500.

CHAR. MARSHALL was arrested last night and locked up in the Hammond-street station on a charge of cutting John Williams in the back. The charge of cutting to kill was changed in the Police Court this morning to that of assault and battery. Marshall was sent out for thirty days and fined $55.

HARVEY R. GREEN, a colored man, yesterday took a hatchet and cut a man named McClane in the head, causing an ugly wound. Green was arrested, and in the Police Court this morning had his case continued till Monday. He is also charged with disorderly conduct. His bond was fixed at $550.
